

Hoffmann
328-acre Easement
Reily Township,
Butler County

With nearly two miles of frontage on Indian Creek, and bordering Indian Creek MetroPark, this easement plays an important role in preserving the natural character of the region. The farm's vast forest retains large sections of unbroken canopy, supporting a remarkable diversity of plants and animals. Timber production and grain farming are the primary enterprises. The property also features a historic Queen Anne Victorian home. Protected as result of matching grants received from the EPA 319 grant program and a USFWS Cooperative Agreement.
