

Roger & Rebekah Voge

(2005, 81 acres)

Twin Township,

Preble County

Open space and agricultural values on this 81-acre farm in West Alexandria are under permanent protection by a conservation easement. This property is known locally as one of the most highly productive farms of the region and is being managed using sound farming and conservation practices. These efforts have not only maintained its productivity, but also its picturesque and historic character. Protected as result of matching grants received from the Clean Ohio Agricultural Easement Purchase Program (AEPP), administered by the Ohio Department of Agriculture.

